AGGREGATE FEES

1. MISO12 Fees are fair

a. The more often you do any of the four MISO12 strands, the lower your starting fee gets.

E.g. Under the Sporting Strand, if you play for 3 days (Main Event or Early Bird and Late Bird), your fee will be significantly lower than the 1-Day base fee multiplied by 3. You make additional savings if you take an All Inclusive package (inc. Main Event and/or Late Bird, Lunch and Dinner on the days of the tourney/s, Tour and Accommodation on the nights of the tourney/s). You can save up to €120 in this way.

b. The more recently you did MISO, the lower your starting fee and aggregate fee get.

E.g. If you are a Repeat MISO Participant (i.e. you did MISO11 (2018)), your base and aggregate fees are a bit lower than if you are a Return MISO Participant (i.e. you did not do MISO11 but did an earlier edition of MISO) or a 1st-time Participant (i.e. you never did a MISO before).

Go to the MISO12 Individual Fees Calculator to easily work out your fees.

2. MISO12 Fees are reasonable

In relation to the number of games, MISO12 Fees work out at less than €4 per game and less than the international average for 2019.

Top players participating in MISO12 can count on a final position in the top 3 covering the bulk of their expenses. See this calculated in the

MISO12 Individual Fees Calculator
